ORDER:

It is the case of the petitioners that the Government assigned house sites in favour of 210 allottees, including the petitioners herein, admeasuring an extent of Ac.0-02 cents to each of the allottees, in various plots in Sy.No.194/8 situated at Upparapalli Village, Anantapur Mandal, Anantapur District, vide proceedings in Dis.No.57/1401, dated 30-06-1992, for the purpose of constructing houses. In view of the poverty, the petitioners could not construct the houses and to eke out their livelihood, they left the village. But, when they came back to their village, the boundary stones and markings relating to the house sites granted in their favour are got damaged due to climatic conditions and for non-using of the said land. Therefore, the petitioners made a representation, dated 02-11-2006, before the respondent to demarcate the said house sites by conducting survey. But, so far, no demarcation has not been made.

It is stated that the petitioners are assignees of the house sites and, therefore, they are entitled for the said house sites. It is stated that even the said house sites are in illegal occupation of some body, the petitioners are entitled for restoration of their possession.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the writ petition is disposed of directing the respondent to consider and dispose of the representation, dated 02-11-2006, by passing appropriate orders in accordance with the provisions of A.P.Assigned Lands (Prohibition of Transfers) Act, 1977, as expeditiously as possible, without any undue delay. There shall be no order as to costs.
